

NEW FINANCIAL APPOINTMENTS

THE Financial Intermediaries Association of Southern Africa (FIA) recently held its board election and announced a number of appointments, including a new president, vice president and CEO.

Brian van Flymen was confirmed as the new president of the FIA.

Van Flymen has been on the committee of the organisations that served as the forerunners of the FIA since 1989, and has served as a director of the FIA since its incorporation.

"Much needs to be done in consultation with the Financial Services Board and Inseta, with particular attention to the second round of regulatory exams," said Van Flymen.

Former FIA president Arnold van der Linde is now the vice president and Justus van Pletzen was confirmed as the new CEO of the FIA with immediate effect. Van Pletzen previously served as chief operating officer.
